

JD.com Announces Completion of CNY10 Billion Offering of CNY-denominated Senior Notes

BEIJING, April 10, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- JD.com, Inc. (NASDAQ: JD and HKEX: 9618 (HKD counter) and 89618 (RMB counter), the "Company" or "JD.com"), a leading supply chain-based technology and service provider, today announced the completion of its offering of CNY10 billion aggregate principal amount of CNY-denominated senior unsecured notes (the "Notes"). The Notes were offered in offshore transactions outside the United States to certain non-U.S. persons (the "Notes Offering") in reliance on Regulation S under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act").

The Notes Offering consists of CNY7.5 billion of 2.05% notes due 2031 and CNY2.5 billion of 2.75% notes due 2036.

The Company intends to use the net proceeds from the Notes Offering for general corporate purposes, including repayment of certain existing indebtedness and payment of interest.

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act or any state securities laws. They may not be offered or sold in the United States or to, or for the account or benefits of, U.S. persons (as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act) except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

The listing of and permission to deal in the Notes on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Hong Kong Stock Exchange") is expected to become effective on April 13, 2026.

This announcement shall not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to purchase any securities, in the United States or elsewhere, and shall not constitute an offer, solicitation or sale of the securities in any state or jurisdiction in which such an offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful.
